

SFist Drinks: Summer in the City at Michael Mina

Ah summer. What is it, really? Kate Bolton, bartender at Michael Mina, created this bright and refreshing drink to celebrate the season that takes a long time to arrive in our fair city. It mixes some sweet apple flavors with the herbal notes of gin and a floral touch of violet liqueur. Simple, elegant, and strong enough even for a guy to like, sans flower garnish.

Summer in the City

1.5 oz. apple-infused gin
 1 oz. dry Reisling
 0.5 oz Cocchi Americano
 0.5 oz. Tempus Fugit Liqueur Violette

Stir all ingredients with ice, strain into a small coupe (or a dessert wine glass) and garnish with a nasturtium flower or other edible flower.
